

Do You Remember ?

Intro : A C F E A C F E

1. Vers

A D
Those boys met in 65
A D

It was the first time with guitars

A D

The Beatles and the Rolling Stones

A D

Should lead them to the stars

C D F E7

After school they tried real hard in the afternoon

A D

And the little combo got the groove

E E7

one day in that sticky room

A C F E A C F E

2. Vers

A D
They had grown up within two years

A D

Like other boys in town

A D

And by and by their lost their fears

A D

On stage they got that smoky sound

C D F E7

Those boys left in 69 It was the last time on a stage

A D E E7

At midnight on a winters day They got their very last hurrah

Refrain:

A D

Old time, it was a lucky time

A D

It was the last time, it was the best.

A C

It was STONES time, it was BEATLES time

F E7

with THE ANIMALS as special guest

D E7 A

It was the best it should ever last

A C F E A C F E

3. Strophe

A D A D
Fourty years later they all met again In a little town just here
A D
And all their friends and former fans
A D
they had come from everywhere
C D F E7
The little combo gave the groove to the crowd just surround
A D
Those men on stage like younger boys
E E7
Crying out their smoky sound.

Refrain:

A D
Old time, it was a lucky time
A D
It was the last time, it was the best.
A C
It was STONES time, it was BEATLES time
F E7
with THE ANIMALS as special guest
D E7 A
It was the best it should ever last

Refrain:

A D
Old time, it was a lucky time
A D
It was the last time, it was the best.
A C
It was STONES time, it was BEATLES time
F E7
with THE ANIMALS as special guest
D E7 A
It was the best it should ever last

A C F E A C F E